

SEA ASIA - RETURNING FOR THE SIXTH EDITION IN 2017

Sea Asia, the premier maritime and offshore conference and exhibition in Asia is returning for the sixth edition on 25 - 27 April 2017 at the Marina Bay Sands®, Singapore.

Co-organised by Seatrade and the Singapore Maritime Foundation, Sea Asia is attended by trade professionals and some of the most influential and respected leaders in the industry including decision makers. As the anchor event held in conjunction with the Singapore Maritime Week, Sea Asia enjoys strong support from government agencies and key trade associations; firmly establishing itself in the marketplace as the leading platform for both the global and local maritime and offshore communities to explore business, network, and unveil new products and services.

Alongside an international exhibition, the Sea Asia conference complements the exhibition and puts Sea Asia at the forefront of regional maritime events. From the first event, the Sea Asia conference has always been one of the defining features of Sea Asia, with exceptional content delivered by some of the industry's most articulate speakers, from Asia and around the world. Each edition includes fresh topics and treatments, intended to stimulate interest and make delegates think a little differently about their industry.

With the theme of "The Asian Voice in a Global Industry", highlights of 2017 conference includes the Sea Asia Global Forum, a highly regarded keynote session,

The Sea Asia conference and exhibition.

Technology Forum, a completely new element in the programme examining global trends in the technology and the Parliamentary Debate, where speakers for and against the motion will discuss the changing structure of the industry.

The high-powered Sea Asia conference brings together international leading industry experts and thought-leaders to address the latest topics, debate on key trends, and discuss opportunities and challenges facing the maritime and offshore businesses from a commercial perspective.

Confirmed speakers include Nik Gowing, an international broadcaster and journalist, Mr Paul Stein, Director - Research and Technology of Rolls-Royce plc, Mr Paddy Rogers, Chief Executive officer of Euronav, Mr Lui Tuck Yew, former Minister for Transport, Government of Singapore, Mr Jarand Rystad, Managing Partner of Rystad Energy, Ms Sabrina Chao, Chairman of Wah Kwong Maritime Transport Holding Ltd and many others.
